3 November 1953

TO: Chief, Inspection and Security
THRU: Chief, Office of Logistics
Security Officer, Office of Logistics
Supply Division
FROM: [REDACTED]
SUBJECT: Compliance, [REDACTED]

In accordance with said regulation, the following factors are presented for your review.

1. Served as Logistics representative for [REDACTED] from 9 June 1953, thru 18 September 1953, [REDACTED]
2. Assigned to the [REDACTED] as an advisor in the care and preservation of materiel given to them for operational purposes.
3. Upon completion of my assignment a sterling silver tea service set, each piece embossed with the [REDACTED] was presented to me as a gift. This set consisted of the following items;
 - a. Pot, tea
 - b. Pitcher, cream
 - c. Bowl, sugar
 - d. Tongs, sugar
 - e. Tray, Silver
 - f. Case for the above items

NOTE: The tray inscribed as follows:
TO [REDACTED] IN APPRECIATION OF HIS
VALUABLE ASSISTANCE TO THE [REDACTED]
DEPARTMENT [REDACTED]
DIRECTOR-GENERAL SEPTEMBER, 1953

4. Due to the commercial cover governing our movements, it was felt that acceptance of the gift was mandatory for security purposes. Also, since we were instructed to further diplomatic relations between our cover company, [REDACTED] it was felt that refusal of the gift would offend the [REDACTED] officials. If at all possible, the undersigned would very much like to retain possession of this gift. A very close social relation was maintained between high ranking [REDACTED] officials and the undersigned.
